a talk by

Alexander C. Schubert

on the topic of

Trend Scouting, Future Research, Strategic Foresight & Mindfulness – and how they complement each other in today's BANI World

14 May 2025 from 18h30 to 20h00

Zoom Meeting

Alexander C. Schubert, PMP, MPhil, is a futurist, executive advisor, and mindfulness-based leadership facilitator with more than 25 years of international experience spanning Germany and South Africa. As founder of ACS – Accelerated Consulting Services, he specializes in strategic foresight, horizon scanning, digital transformation, and large-scale program leadership, drawing on senior roles with global organizations including SAP, Deutsche Bank and CSC.

With an MPhil in Futures Studies, postgraduate specialization in mindfulness-based interventions, and certification as a Search Inside Yourself (SIY) teacher/facilitator, Alexander brings a distinctive blend of future-focused strategy, corporate transformation, and emotional intelligence to his work. He is passionate about helping leaders and organizations navigate complexity, embrace change, and build resilient, human-centered futures.

A seasoned speaker and facilitator, Alexander combines deep expertise in project and program management with insights from mindfulness, innovation, and futures thinking to inspire audiences on leadership, transformation and preparing for what's next.
