

VOLUNTEERING AT NLT NATURE RESERVES

This volunteer waiver applies to all volunteers including members and volunteer faculty from the Rotary Clubs of Northumberland, for all activities and work done on the Laurie Lawson Outdoor Education Centre property owned and managed by the Northumberland Land Trust (NLT). All activities performed on the NLT properties will be done at your own risk.

GENERAL GUIDELINES

1. Before you visit, become familiar with the Nature Reserve by visiting the NLT website at nltrust.ca.
2. Stay on the trails where they exist and leave no garbage behind.
3. Do not damage, interfere with, or remove any plants or animals unless given permission to do so by stewards or staff of NLT.
4. All volunteers (students or otherwise) must wear appropriate protective clothing /equipment and follow applicable safety procedures. Those that do not have specified protective clothing etc. will not be allowed to participate in the work activities.
5. Be aware of possible outdoor hazards including: poison ivy; ticks; biting insects; falling branches; uneven, steep or rugged terrain; and wildlife such as black bears.
6. Volunteers must follow the directives of the work party leader(s) and only perform work for which they are physically able and competent.

I, the undersigned, acknowledge reading and understanding these rules and assume responsibility for all members and volunteers of the Rotary Clubs to perform volunteer activities at the Laurie Lawson Outdoor Education Centre.
