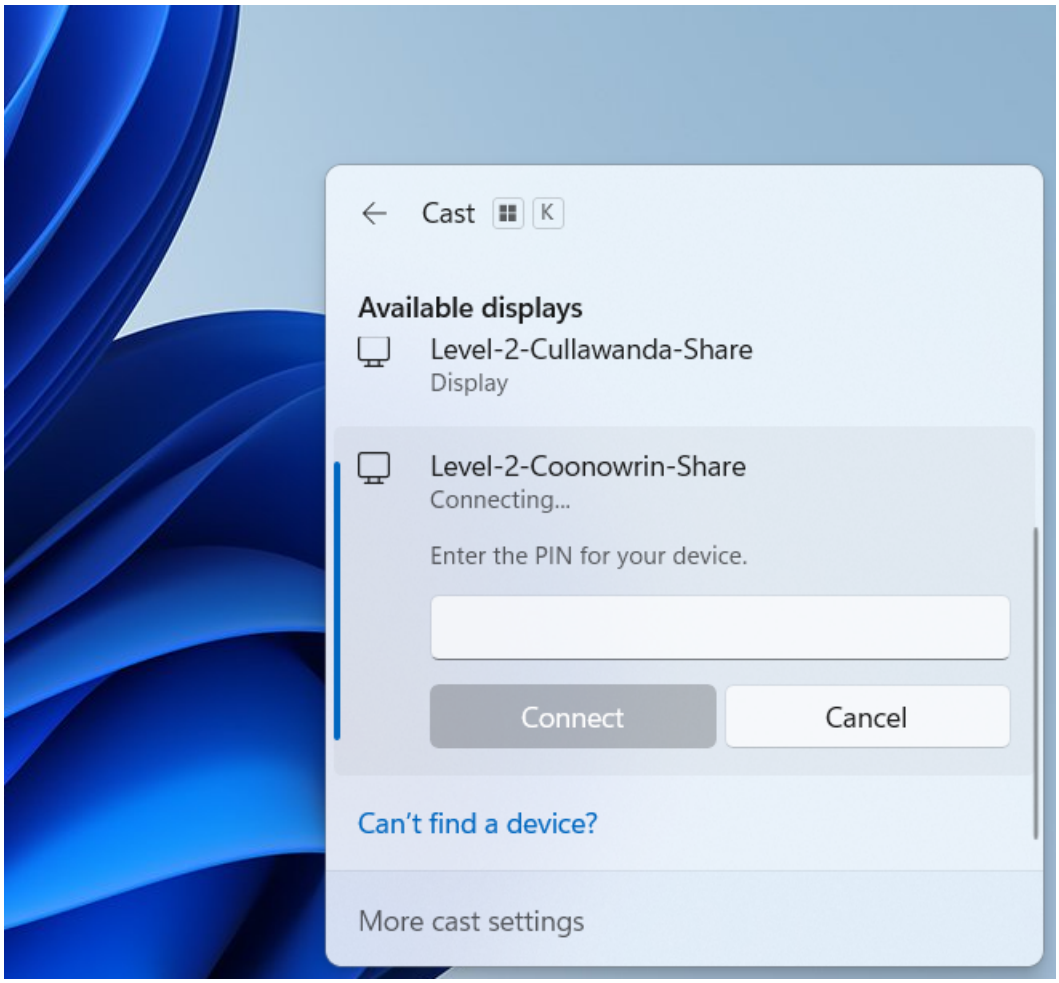
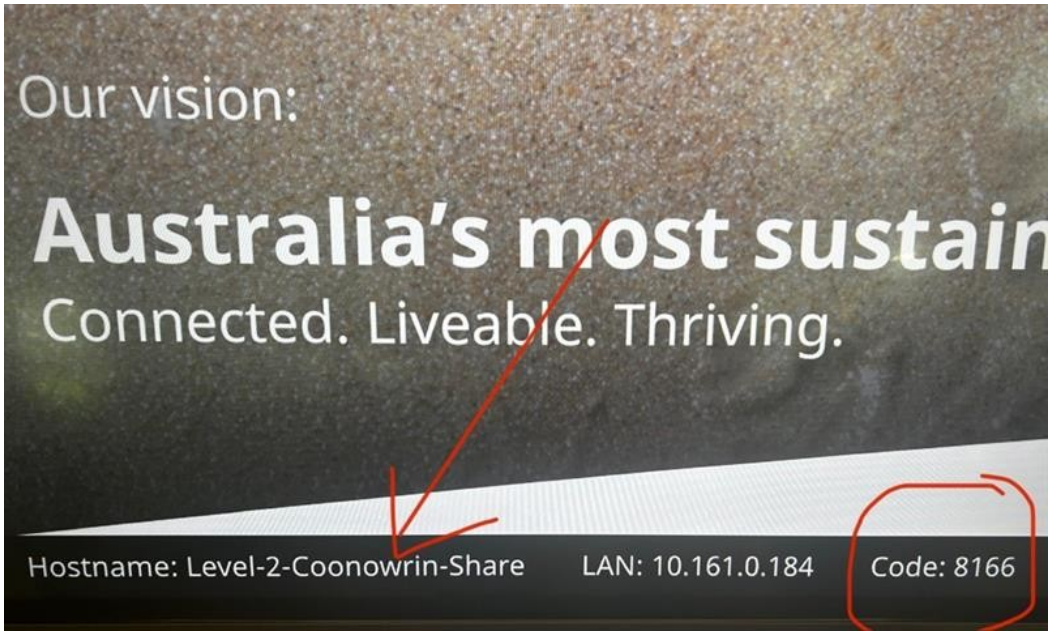
Share Screen Wirelessly using Miracast (Windows)

Press Windows +K

Select the name of the room you are in and enter the code shown on the screen



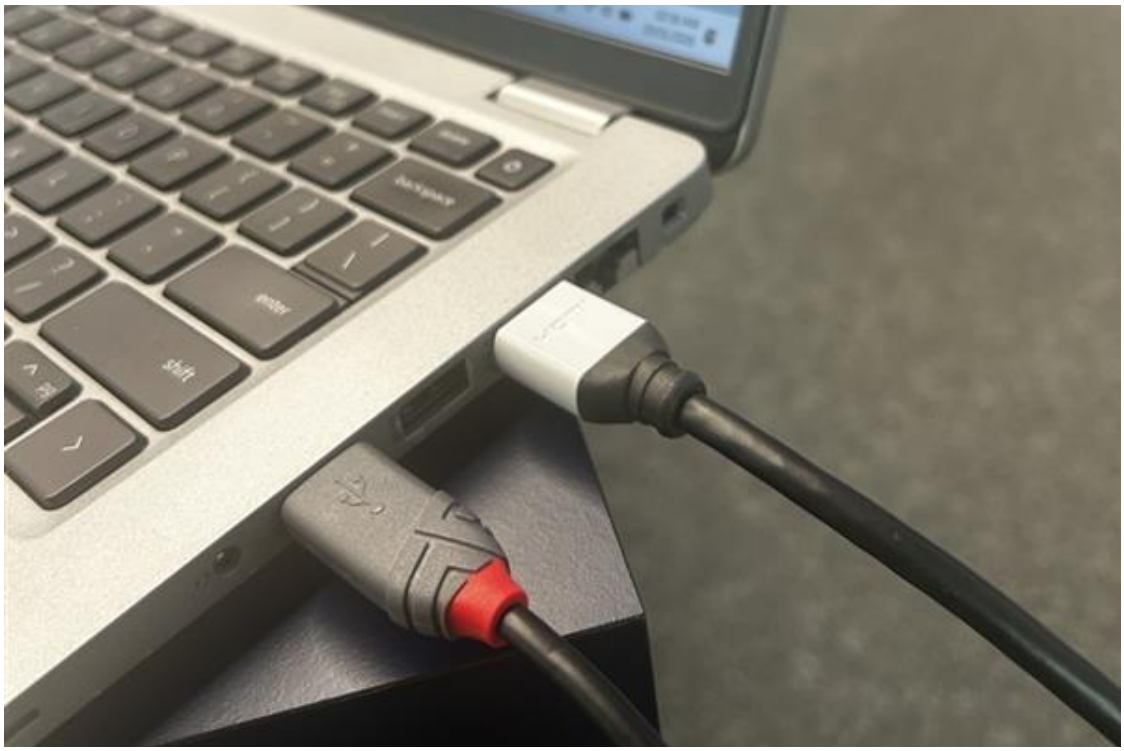


Share Screen using HDMI

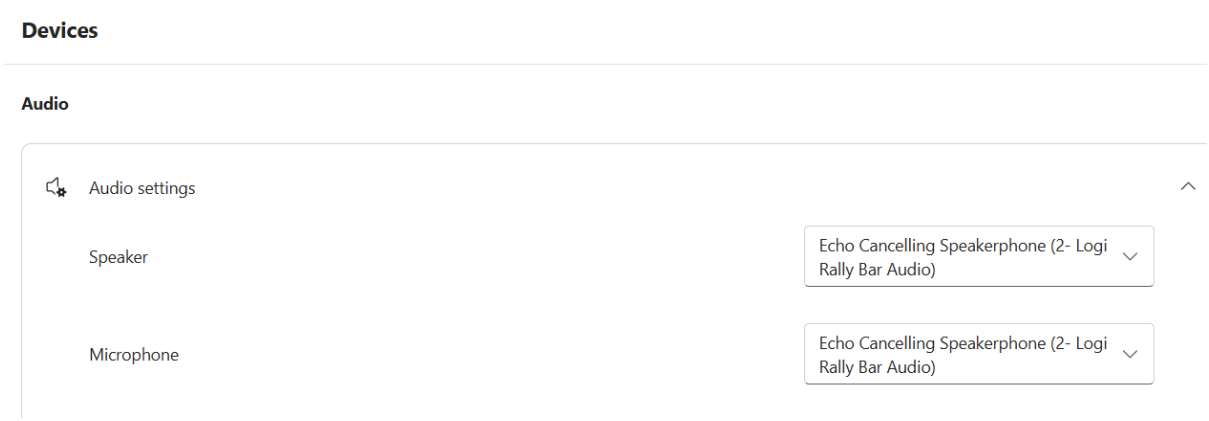
Connect Supplied HDMI cable (in storeroom) from your laptop to the wall plate on the right-hand side of the screen.

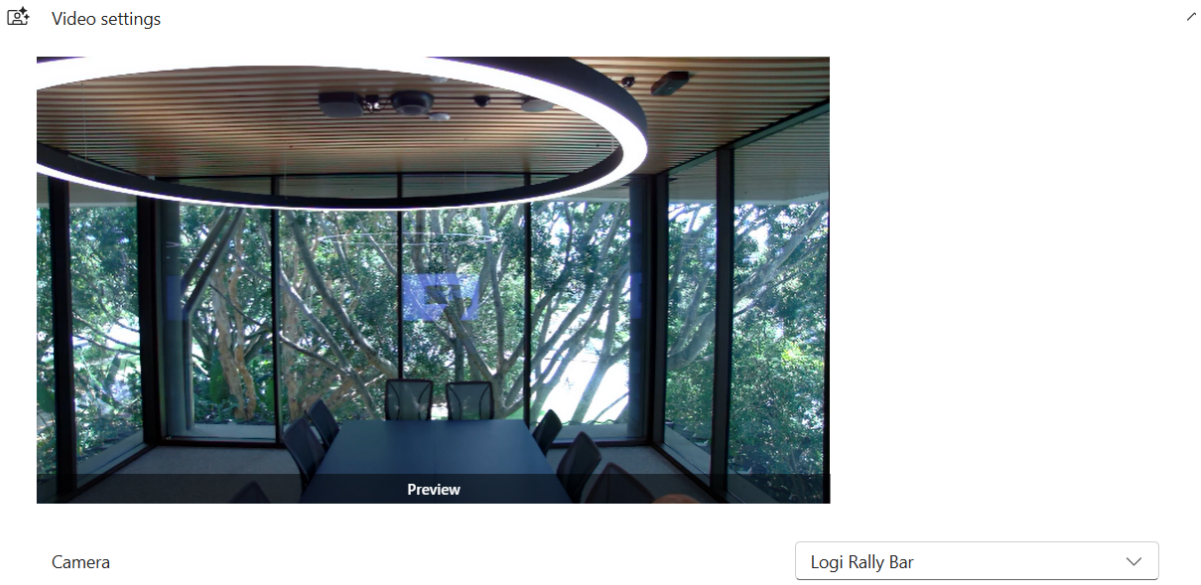
Share screen and use room audio/camera for video conferencing

Connect supplied HDMI and USB cables between laptop and wall plate on the right-hand side of the screen



Laptop screen will be mirrored to the room display. You can now access the room audio and camera via the settings in your chosen Video Conferencing application

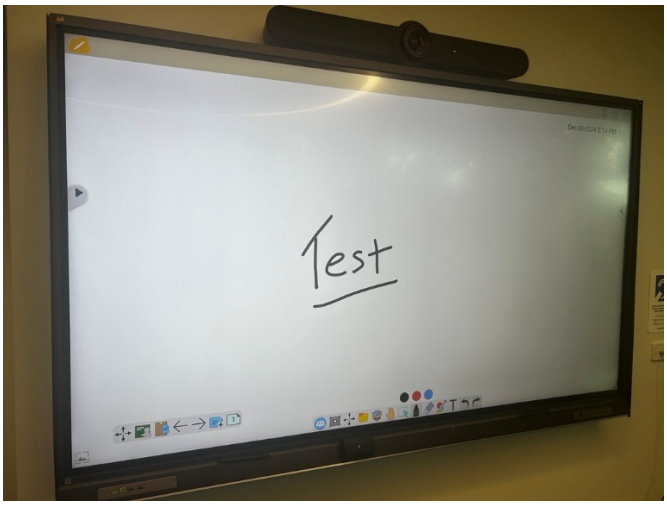




Switching between Sharelink HDMI/ Wireless input and Interactive Whiteboard

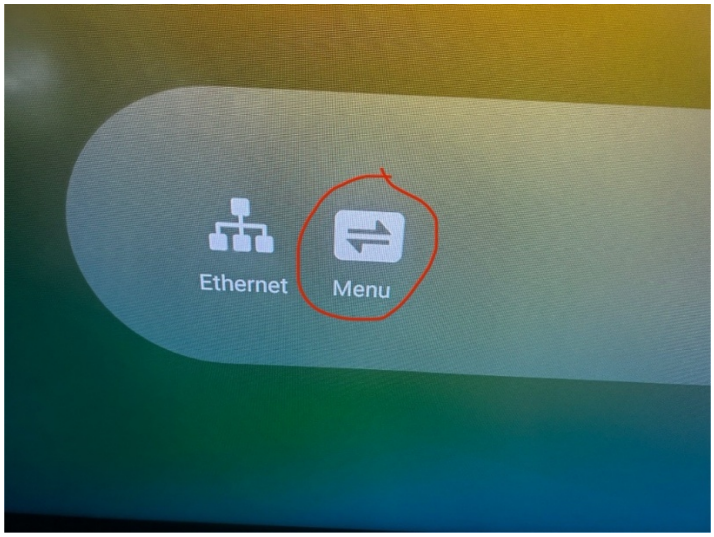
Press the “House” button on the front of the Interactive Whiteboard to access the Viewboard page

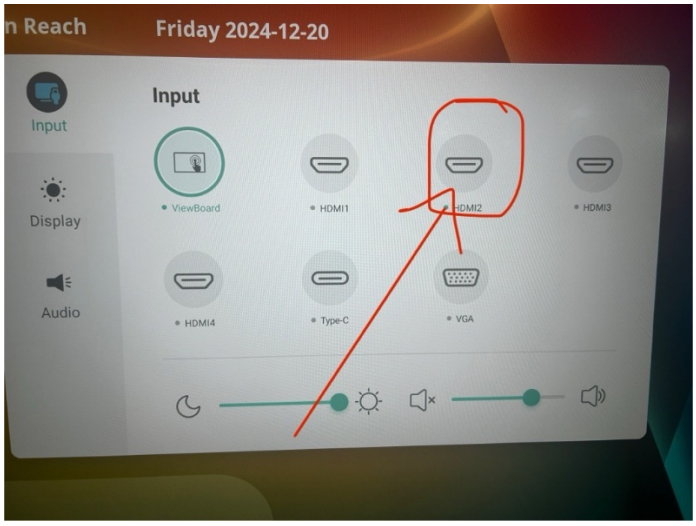
Press “myViewboard” to open the interactive whiteboard



To return to the Sharelink/HDMI share screen, press the “House” button on the bottom right of the screen again

Press ‘Menu”





Select “HDMI 2”